Liverwurst

A big hit at parties. Delicious on bread, in a sandwich. Thick slices of creamy liverwurst, loved by all ages. Our liverwurst is made in exactly the same fashion as (grand)father Adrie Wilthagen used to do in his butcher's shop. With the same love and attention. And the same herbs, according to a secret family recipe.

Our liverwurst 'from Zeeland' is the traditional kind. With the full-bodied taste of liver, in a darker greyish colour. The hallmark of an artisan liverwurst. Made from fresh pork liver (more than 52%), with added pork and bacon. The spice mix is a secret, but it contains white pepper, mace and nutmeg. And – hush-hush – also coriander and ginger.

Wilthagen also produces an organic chicken liverwurst: tender and creamy, slightly lighter and more pink in colour than the traditional liverwurst. This tasty chicken liver sausage contains 37% chicken liver and has been approved by the Dutch Society for the Protection of Animals.

- Spiced according to our family recipe.
- Kettle cooked, slowly.
- For optimal taste development.
- Cooking the liverwurst makes it safe and longer-lasting.
- Delicious with mustard, chutney or fruit jellies.
- Gluten-free, no flavourings or colourings.
